

This age 60 rule for commercial pilots is age discrimination, pure and simple. The FAA will be exposed in court for the unethical and illegal basis used for this rule. Lets get to a common sense basis for determining who flies commercially...physical ability and personal proficiency.